Recommended Reading List K-4th

The following list includes very well written books with at least one Islamic value or more:

1-Feelings By Aliko

With minimal words and maximum illustrations, children are encouraged to consider the feelings of others, and in the process have great feelings of their own.

2-The Man Who Could Call Down Owls by Bunting, Eve

A fable about good and evil, in which a good man attract owls to him because of his goodness to them, and then an evil stranger tries to steal that power.

3-The Patchwork Quilt by Flourney, Valerie

Tanya's grandmother starts a quilt, but when she falls ill, Tanya and her mother continue until Tanya finishes it. Excellent family interaction.
